Jacobs Qualcomm Hall, already has everyone in a whirl over who will be tripping the light fantastic in this celebrity dance competition. Playing off the huge success of last year's unique fundraiser, Malashock Dance asked Kristy Gregg to again chair the sequel for this year.

"We are so appreciative that Kristy is taking this on again for 2008," said Malashock Dance Artistic Director John Malashock. "Last year's event was very successful and raised awareness and funding for the Malashock Dance School and its education and outreach programs. With Kristy at the helm, and with the tremendous response from the community, we look forward to an equally exciting MALASHOCK THINKS YOU CAN DANCE '08."

Mary Murphy, owner/director of Champion Ballroom Academy and a celebrity judge and choreographer for FOX TV's So You Think You Can Dance, will be back and the line-up of celebrity participants will be announced soon.
